EnterPRize 2022 is the seventeenth edition of the business competition of Grupo Guayacán, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to developing, strengthening and promoting the business ecosystem in Puerto Rico.

This year Grupo Guayacán will distribute more than $285,000 in prizes and grants among the winners, for which 27 local companies from various industries will be competing.

Olga Iglesias Project will compete for one of three institutional prizes of $25K, $15K and $10K; and for one of the special prizes in the category of art and culture.

EnterPRize 2022 consists of a series of weekly seminars focused on helping companies prepare their business plan and present it on November 4, when the competition ends, before a jury in charge of choosing the winners.
